Prerequisites
Swedish 1-30 ECTS cr or equivalent

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the module, students should be able to:
1. give an account of how verbal communication interacts with paralinguistic communication such as prosody and body language and discuss how the interaction works in different examples,
2. analyse spontaneous conversation and debates from the perspectives of conversation analysis and rhetorical perspectives,
3. apply the rhetorical model in the planning and delivery of an argumentative speech,
4. give response to fellow-students' argumentative speech (content and delivery), and
5. use basic rhetorical tools in a detailed and nuanced analysis of an argumentative speech.

Content
Students study Swedish in spontaneous and prepared speech. Students are expected to acquire a rhetorical competence in analysing the speech and conversation of others and their own presentations.
