The programme coordinator's final analysis.

There has been some issues with some students arriving late to campus, which affected their study pace. Although having a slow start, many of the students managed to catch up. There has been changes on a national level to the admission process since then.

Suggestions for improvements.

Regarding course content, there have been several changes to the contents of the courses as well as the programme for the year 2024. New courses are added ISAD28, ISAD20, and ISAD21.

¹ Registered programme student current cohort, no approved leave, no non-completion and registered for a course at Kau current semester.

² Number of students who have not clicked "No" - "I am not a student on the programme stated above this academic year" in the evaluation.

³ Number of students who answered at least 1 question, or commented in free text field.
