Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. independently and creatively identify and formulate linguistic research questions,
2. identify, critically evaluate, and use linguistic research material,
3. decide what methods are most suitable for answering linguistic research questions,
4. give a detailed account of and critically discuss their own and others' research results both orally and in writing,
5. plan, design, and conduct empirical linguistic research with a high degree of independence,
6. contribute to the development of knowledge in the field of linguistic research,

7. express themselves well in English in terms of style and structure, present convincing analyses, and adhere to referencing conventions, and
8. plan and complete advanced assignments in time.

Content

Students carry out an independent research project and write a paper in an area of English linguistics.

Supervision is provided for the duration of the course. Reregistered students are only offered supervision if circumstances permit.

Reading List

See separate document.

Examination

Assessment is based on the quality of the degree project, presented and discussed in a mandatory seminar.

If students have a decision from Karlstad University entitling them to Targeted Study Support due to a documented disability, the examiner has the right to give such students an adapted examination or to examine them in a different manner.

Grades

One of the grades Distinction (VG), Pass (G), or Fail (U) is awarded in the examination of the course.

Quality Assurance

Follow-up relating to learning conditions and goal-fulfilment takes place both during and upon completion of the course in order to ensure continuous improvement. Course evaluation is partly based on student views and experiences obtained in accordance with current regulations and partly on other data and documentation. Students will be informed of the result of the evaluation and of any measures to be taken.

Course Certificate

A course certificate will be provided upon request.

Additional information

The local regulations for studies at the Bachelor and Master levels at Karlstad University stipulate the obligations and rights of students and staff.
