Prerequisites

General admission requirements plus upper secondary school level English 6 or B (field-specific eligibility A2 or 2) or equivalent.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. describe basic linguistic concepts and apply them to secondary material,
2. give an account of the main features of central fields in English linguistics, and
3. analyse phenomena in English language usage from a theoretical and applied perspective and in comparison with Swedish and other languages

Content

The course introduces basic concepts and theories in central English linguistic research fields. Students form an understanding of the structure and use of the English language and compare with Swedish and other languages. Linguistic problems are discussed and concepts and theories are applied in analysis exercises. Students are also introduced to linguistics as a research field, including its academic discourse.
