Prerequisites

General admission requirements and upper secondary level English 6 or B, or equivalent

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. define and use basic concepts in literary studies,
2. analyse different types of literature in English at a basic level, and
3. produce structured and coherent analyses of literature in Standard English and use sources correctly.

Content

The course focuses on the analysis of different types and genres of literature in English and introduces basic literary theory and concepts used in literary studies. Students develop analytical and critical skills through oral and written assignments involving the use of relevant literary concepts. The course includes micro-teaching.

Reading List

See separate document.

Examination

Learning outcomes 1 and 2 are assessed based on a written exam and micro-teaching. Learning outcome 2 is also assessed based on an individual written hand-in assignment. Learning outcome 3 is assessed based on an individual written hand-in assignment.

If students have a decision from Karlstad University entitling them to Targeted Study Support due to a documented disability, the examiner has the right to give such students an adapted examination or to examine them in a different manner.

Grades

One of the grades Distinction (VG), Pass (G), or Fail (U) is awarded in the examination of the course.

Quality Assurance

Follow-up relating to learning conditions and goal-fulfilment takes place both during and upon completion of the course in order to ensure continuous improvement. Course evaluation is partly based on student views and experiences obtained in accordance with current regulations and partly on other data and documentation. Students will be informed of the result of the evaluation and of any measures to be taken.

Course Certificate

A course certificate will be provided upon request.
