Major Field of Study:

Course Approval

The syllabus was approved by the Board of Teacher Education 2017-08-30, and is valid from the Spring semester 2018 at Karlstad University.

Prerequisites

Admission to the pedagogical bridging programme after third-cycle qualifications

Learning Outcomes

The aim of the course is that students develop an understanding of how teachers contribute to pupils' knowledge and learning and that they acquire knowledge of hindering and supporting factors in the learning process. The focus is on theoretical perspectives in the field of education and subject education. Pupils' learning is related to the social and cultural factors that impact on teaching and learning.

Upon completion of the module, students should be able to:

1. give an account of and problematise different conditions for children's, adolescents' and adults' development and learning in various environments from theoretical and experience-based perspectives on knowledge and learning,
2. give an account of and problematise how child and youth development and the conditions under which pupils grow up affect their learning processes,
3. give an account of and problematise different special education approaches to teaching and learning,
4. give an account of and problematise how perspectives on knowledge and learning affect the teaching design in their own subject,
5. analyse, problematise and evaluate the use of digital tools, and
6. demonstrate communicative ability in listening, speaking and writing in ways that are both functional and adequate.

Content

The course comprises the following components:

- knowledge and skills from different theoretical perspectives, proven experience, research result and pupils' understanding,
