The syllabus was approved by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences 2018-02-14, and is valid from the Autumn semester 2018 at Karlstad University.

Prerequisites

60 ECTS credits completed for a music programme involving instrument or vocal studies.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to

1. give examples of form, style and performance praxis of a repertoire,
2. demonstrate basic technical instrument or vocal skills,
3. describe and apply simple techniques and methods when rehearsing and performing a repertoire,
4. discern technical problems and rendition difficulties in a repertoire,
5. rehearse and perform a repertoire in terms of form, style and performance praxis,
6. demonstrate good ability to communicate music, and
7. reflect on their approach to music-making.

Content

Students rehearse and perform an instrumental or vocal repertoire. Technical aspects and methods of rehearsing and performing a repertoire are treated.

For solo instrument or vocal studies some accompaniment is included.

Instruction is in the form of individual rehearsal and individual lessons and group activities.

Reading List

See separate document.

Examination

Assessment is individual and based on musical performances and oral presentations.

Grades

One of the grades Distinction (VG), Pass (G), or Fail (U) is awarded in the examination of the course.

Quality Assurance

Follow-up relating to learning conditions and goal-fulfilment takes place both during and upon completion of the course in order to ensure continuous improvement. Course evaluation is partly based on student views and experiences obtained in accordance with current regulations and partly on other data and documentation. Students will be informed of the result of the evaluation and of any measures to be taken.

Course Certificate

A course certificate will be provided upon request.
