Course Approval

The syllabus was approved by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences 2022-02-23, and is valid from the Autumn semester 2022 at Karlstad University.

Prerequisites

Courses in Instrumental or vocal practice, 7.5 ECTS credits, or equivalent

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. identify different roles and functions in duo musical performance and contribute to the musical interpretation of a performed repertoire,
2. integrate and develop connections between technique, structure, and style in performance,
3. compare different musical traditions from a broad range of time periods, and
4. demonstrate good communicative skills when performing in front of an audience.

Content

Students make music in duo and practice performance and listening to each other. Through a combination of different instruments or voices in a duo environment, students are offered the opportunity to try a broader and more versatile repertoire. The purpose is to increase the students' understanding of music from different perspectives. Students are able to practice their interpretive skills, develop an idea of their own role as part of a duo, and learn about ensemble preparation and performance.

Reading List

See separate document.

Examination

All learning outcomes are assessed on the basis of musical performance in concert. Learning outcome 3 is also assessed on the basis of an individual written assignment. Learning outcome 4 is also assessed on the basis of an oral presentation.

Submissions for assessment must clearly indicate individual contributions.

If students have a decision from Karlstad University entitling them to Targeted Study Support due to a documented disability, the examiner has the right to give such students an adapted examination or to examine them in a different manner.

Grades

One of the grades Distinction (VG), Pass (G), or Fail (U) is awarded in the examination of the course.

Quality Assurance

Follow-up relating to learning conditions and goal-fulfilment takes place both during and upon completion of the course in order to ensure continuous improvement. Course evaluation is partly based on student views and experiences obtained in accordance with current regulations and partly on other data and documentation. Students will be informed of the result of the evaluation and of any measures to be taken.

Course Certificate

A course certificate will be provided upon request.

Additional information

The local regulations for studies at the Bachelor and Master levels at Karlstad University stipulate the obligations and rights of students and staff.
