Learning Outcomes

The course aims to develop students' skills, knowledge, and understanding of musical learning and interpretation from artistic and educational perspectives.

Module 1: Instrument, 5 ECTS cr.

Upon completion of the module, students should be able to:

1. interpret selected repertoire musically, considering the relevant genre,
2. explore and describe strategies for musical study and practice, and
3. interact with other musicians and, with regard to the relevant genre, contribute to the musical interpretation of the ensemble.

Module 2: Instrument continuation, 3 ECTS cr.

Upon completion of the module, students should be able to:

1. translate a basic musical score into piano playing,
2. perform rock/blues songs with various accompaniment patterns and subdivisions on piano,
3. give an account of fundamental principles of vocal function, and
4. give an account of some different applications of rhythm in music learning.

Module 3: Music education, 7 ECTS cr.

Upon completion of the module, students should be able to:

1. analyse and problematise various purposes, conditions, types of content, goals/learning objectives, and pedagogical actions in music education from an educational perspective,
2. provide examples of planning, documentation, analysis, and evaluation of their own music teaching based on a given model,
3. collaboratively identify, analyse, and argue for different solutions to specific teaching problems,
4. analyse and reflect upon their own practical professional theory and its development,
5. give an account of and analyse methodological aspects of teaching on the main instrument at beginner, intermediate, and/or advanced levels based on the chosen instructional approach for each instrument,
6. conduct, critically examine, and reflect upon their own practice teaching on the main instrument from an educational perspective in the form of supervised lessons or lesson elements, and
7. communicate musical intentions to an ensemble as a leader.

Content

The course comprises three modules. The course content prepares students for school-based placements within the subject area.

Module 1: Instrument, 5 ECTS cr.

- playing the main instrument, both in individual instrumental lessons and in ensemble settings, and
- strategies for musical study and practice.

Module 2: Instrument continuation, 3 ECTS cr.

- basic music notation comprehension and playing various accompaniment patterns on the piano,
- vocal training focusing on voice function, and
- practical, interpretative exercises and group reflections using rhythm as a method to integrate different applications such as meter, dance/movement, voice, and drama into a holistic perspective on music learning.

Module 3: Music education, 7 ECTS cr.

- descriptions, analyses, and discussions of planning, assessment, and evaluation models, as well as general music education issues,
- practical applications, analyses, critical reflections, and discussions of their own and other people's music teaching,
- instrumental teaching methodology seminars on selected themes,
- in-depth methodological aspects based on the chosen instructional approach for each main instrument,
- supervised practice teaching on the main instrument within compulsory or optional school settings,

- reflections on completed supervised practice teaching, and
- fundamental educational and group dynamic aspects of ensemble instruction.
