Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The timing of the lectures is severely restricted by the fact that other courses. I have discussed this with Karl-Markus Modén (programledare), and it seems to be that there is limit possibilities to change this. About the essay: this was discussed during the lecture. Not all students attended the lecture when the essay was discussed.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Spread lectures over a longer time period.
