Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The feedback that the teachers received orally was in general positive. All students passed the course and managed well.

Unfortunately, none of the students provided written feedback via the course evaluation.

One student, who was not well familiar with KAU's examination rules, suggested that we should remind students that exams including quizzes that students have passed cannot be re-taken for the purpose of trying to improve the grades.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

No major changes suggested - It is not clear yet whether the course will be hold again in 2022.
