should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Due to unforeseen circumstances the teacher had to be changed shortly before the course started so there wasn't sufficient time to properly prepare for it. However the general impression is that the course has gone well.

Some students didn't start their project work at the start of the course making it hard for them to finish in time. The Covid restrictions also severely hampered the examinations and the administration of those.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Rescheduling to make sure that each module has sufficient time allocated to be taught properly.
