Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The only ENG A1E participant who took the trouble to fill in this form is clearly content with the course and me as a teacher, so I'll take this opportunity to add to the record that the in-class atmosphere was absolutely great and that these students seemed to thoroughly enjoy not only our in-class activities but each other's company as well!

Now, since no colleague of mine was allocated hours to provide feedback on students' online reflections this time and I had to squeeze this work in without compromising on the quality and quantity of my feedback on all other assignments, at least I feel that the students were left short-changed in this particular area.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Fingers crossed for the return to collaboration with a least more English tutor for ENG A1E from next term onwards.
