Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

5 students attended the course in 2020. We made a more comprehensive evaluation and about students opinion of the different moments in the course, three seminars and the practical project. Four student answered, and they were all pleased with the course content and implementation. They gave the course high grades, 4,7 in average.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Next year we will try to find projects that are even more than today, possible for students to perform independently with only supervising from the teachers.
