Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The students' views and summary of the course analysis are based on the online questionnaire survey and verbal evaluation from the final meeting of the course: the students were satisfied to a large or very large extent and have shown outstanding commitment.

The students appreciated the course activities, particularly highlighting the balance between workloads and the students' given effort to different vital moments of the course. Reading other students' works was considered rewarding.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

There are no direct proposals for changes as both the students and teachers are satisfied with the arrangement.
