should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The course seems to be well-received by the students in terms of content, aim and lectures. THE comments we received about the Canvas structure is currently under revision and shall be updated.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

We are working on making a well-structured and accessible Canvas course for the students. This will be already in effect from Autumn 2020.

1. Number of first registrations for a course: First registration = the first time a student registers for a specific course.
