The students appreciated the course, especially the more practical and creative parts of the course. The switch from campus to distance course due to covid -19 worked well over all. The students expressed that they had some communication difficulties. The students had some concerns regarding examination of the projects.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Overall the course worked well and no major changes will be made. However, we will update the examination guidelines concerning individual examination of projects.

1. Number of first registrations for a course: First registration = the first time a student registers for a specific course.
