should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

I had an oral evaluation with the two students at the meeting in Karlstad; at that point they were very satisfied with the course. Both of them have handed in excellent written assignments during the course and performed very well orally. Unfortunately only one student filled in the electronic evaluation, but the result corresponds to what they told me at the meeting.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

There is no need to change anything based on the students' comments. The course works very well, indeed.
