Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The mentioned opinions are valuable.During last lecture, we discuss the same topic: how to improve course. I received valuable comments. Regarding, mentioned opinions, we as teachers try our best to provide all the required course execution and evaluation information clearly as much possible. We also expect that students proactively approach teaching staff, if something is not clear or hard to understand. In this way, we find a solution quickly, meet the expectations and efficiently deliver course.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

In future, we will provide more details about the mentioned comments as well as arrange discussion session to avoid misunderstanding and misunderstanding of grading criteria.
