should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The course were held as a distance course for all campus students. It has worked well, e.g., a comment on what to keep: "Pedagogy, the interaction between teacher and student via discussion forum and supervision session are preferable as well." "The supervision sessions where we could ask questions were great. The discussion forums were also helpful. This course has been very useful for learning how to write correct references." "The supervision sessions where we could ask questions were great. The discussion forums were also helpful. This course has been very useful for learning how to write correct references." "Overall a pretty good course. The expectations from the teachers have been high but not unreasonable." Several students have in email letters also thanked the teachers for detailed comments and evaluation of their essays.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

The video about the use of the template should include a little bit more on paragraph formatting. And the template itself could possibly contain more examples of references to web sources.
