Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

One student left comments: "The research approaches and the assessment seems great and also the teaching on the posters and individual poster design. The group work on the empirical study is fine but the individual reports as the timing to submit should be revisited." & "The assessments are not purely constructive and the criteria remains vague."

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Discuss with the students of ht22 the timing and how feedback can be more constructive.
