Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

No one filled in the questionnaire for the campus version of the course. However, there were three respondents to the questionnaire for the distance version, and this is what they said: The group discussions were useful, and the teachers were helpful. The schedule was unclear. More time for discussions would have been appreciated.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.
