Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Students seem to be generally happy with the course and their work load manageable.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Because the students' work load seems manageable, a poetry seminar could be added so that the students do not encounter poetry analysis for the first time as late as in the second semester.
