Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The student comments will be considered and evaluated together with the other teachers in KOGV08. The changes implemented the first year - starting satslära first - were introduced and applied due to the comments and suggestions from previous years' course evaluations and comments.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

The instructor maintains a direct dialogue with the students in regard to workload. For those students who prefer a larger workload in satslära, the instructor will make extra assignments available. Important that the student comments regarding the other courses, e.g. Sibelius and GarageBand, are discussed and evaluated along with the other instructors in KOGV08.
