should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Clearer guidelines for the presentation of the poster is suggested. But the poster assignment is overall appreciated: "It deepened my understanding of the project we had outlined and it was a challenge to pick out the most essential parts of it and display them in a concise way. Getting to practice this was great as it's a skill that's useful not only for creating posters."

Students had some conflicting instructions for the assignment to write up a research plan. Possibly, do not use two texts for instructions, but the teachers should be prepared to do more mentoring. Reducing the number (but not the hours) for the teachers involved in mentoring is also strongly recommended by the teachers.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Any extra guides beside assignment text must be thoroughly looked through. Use only one teacher for guiding the group work.
