- B) Professional and accommodating
- C) Professional
- D) Deficient

should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

I taught the last seminar of this course in January 2019. Three students attended and it was those three who had sent in the last assignment. As the course convener, I asked the students what they thought about the course and the answers that I got corresponded to those in this evaluation.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

The request for more specified further reading is noted and we will be more specific about that next time.

1. Number of first registrations for a course: First registration = the first time a student registers for a specific course.
