Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Evaluations in class in June showed that students experienced a development in intercultural competence and were happy about the course content, and the weekly classes were held and students could work and discuss in groups.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

To keep in developing forms of assessment and group work/discussions.
