- A) Professional and very accommodating
- B) Professional and accommodating
- C) Professional
- D) Deficient

should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

The response is to the largest extent positive and very positive. The students seem engaged and satisfied with how the course was conducted, especially the lectures.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

To have more assignments from week to week so that they engage with the reading material more. The examination could consist of more but shorter questions.
