Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Students are generally satisfied with the course, which is confirmed by the on-site and the current evaluation, which was completed by three students. The content and structure supported the achievement of the learning outcomes to a high or very high degree, the same applies to the assessments. The teaching staff were assessed as professional. The workshops were particularly appreciated.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

As the course is well received and evaluated by both students and teachers, we do not propose any major changes.
