Analysis based on course evaluation, including comments fields. If information has been collected in other ways, it should also be analysed here. Any effect of joint courses should be commented on.

Some think the videos are too close to the power points, others have no problem with this presentation mode. Faster feedback is wished by some respondents: we presume it is written individual feedback that is wanted.

Suggestions for changes to the next course date.

Add videos on the greater ISD context which Benyon is arguing (against).

Try to give written individual feedback on individual assignment.

Open for some general supervision session to provide more guidance for students, especial the individual one (i.e. the first assignment).
