Summary of student evaluations based on the questionnaire, free text comments and any other data.

The students who answered were very satisfied. It would be better to have a higher response rate. The students would like to see new courses, one focusing of forest ecology.

The programme coordinator's final analysis.

The program has been successful and continues to have increasing enrollment. New courses have been added, and we will continue to explore more opportunities.

Suggestions for improvements.

We will develop a plan to add new courses as teacher resources become available.
